

Grade: _____/100

Name: _____

Anatomy & Physiology

Quarterly Research Reports

MR. HADERLIE – DUE DATE: MAY 1ST

BLOOMFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

Topic (_____/20 pts)

- Our focus is a more clinical one in which we can understand more the different technologies, techniques, and drugs available for assisting in the various medical fields.
- Your paper is to focus on current medical research that discusses a technique, technology, or medicinal drug in the field of your choice.
- If you have another idea about another possibility for a medical research report, please speak with me.

Structure (_____/20 pts)

- Title Page – this is where you list your name, class, and title of the paper.
- Introduction – the introduction is a brief synopsis of your paper, meaning that you need to briefly explain what your paper is about.
- Body – the body includes the main ideas and information for your paper.
- Conclusion – discuss what you learned from your research.

Citations (_____/20 pts)

- When you quote someone within the body of your paper you do not use direct quotes, rather summarizations and conclusions followed by the last name of the author and the year of the publication. Example: (Jackson 2006)

Bibliography (_____/20 pts)

- The bibliography must include all sources used for researching for this paper, regardless of whether or not you cited them in your actual paper.
- The listing of the sources must be done in alphabetical order according to the primary author of the paper.
- You must use at least 3 sources; one from each of the following places:
 - o A book
 - o A journal (online journal are acceptable)
 - o A government or educational website (denoted by .gov or .edu)
- Write them using this format: Author. Year. "Title". Publication.
- Ex: Johnson, John. 2006. "Codeine". New York, New York, 1st Ed.
- Ex: Centers for Disease and Control Prevention. 2008. "Traveler's Health". <http://wwwn.cdc.gov/travel/default.aspx>

Length (_____/20 pts)

- A minimum of 3 pages typed and double spaced. This does not include the bibliography. If you use diagrams or pictures, these are not to be included as part of your 3 pages. You need to use Times New Roman 12 type font and 1" margins.